Does the ground truth change how often a model switches its answer? (LR label: biased vs not biased)
Same model, same sample, framed vs baseline prompt. Grey ≈ red = switching ignores the data.
Right text: biased − not biased (pp; bold * = Fisher p < 0.05), then switched/eligible, not biased vs biased.

