How close each sample's label is to the 0.05 cut-off. Mass piled against the line = labels that a slightly different sample would flip. (DI has no p-value: it is a fixed 0.8 ratio threshold.)